A MUM UP ABOVE

'Mum came back home from Canada after dad died and she wanted to settle near me and Steve and her grandchildren,' says Margaret Sinclair of Edinbugh.

'Property up here isn't cheap so we decided to make a lovely home for here right here in our own home. Now, you might think it would easy enough to find space in our largish house for one more family member - after all, the old nursery is doing nothing now that Tom and Lily are heading for their teens - but we reckoned we could do better than that.

'Steve spoke to an architect who explained that it would be easy enough to open up some room in the roof and provide a lovely bedroom and a bathroom plus a little kitchen area for mum.

'He recommended VELUX roof windows to provide light and a sense of space and a VELUX balcony window system so she could sit outside on her very own roof terrace on summer mornings and enjoy birdsong with her first coffee of the day. Mum just loves her new home - and the feeling of independence it gives her.'
